

MAFFRA HISTORIC BUILDING WALK

Map Key

- 1 Gippsland Vehicle Collection - 1a Sale Road, Maffra
Originally built during WW2 as a vegetable dehydrating plant

- 2 Maffra Medical Group - 150 Johnson Street, Maffra
In 1923, Young's Arcade was built for owners Margaret and Henry Young. Young's Arcade was intended to be occupied by a variety of shops, however, its success was temporarily hampered by the Depression of the 1930s.

- 3 Sugar Beet Museum - McMahon Drive, Maffra
The former Beet Sugar Factory office (c1896) and weighbridge were originally located on the site of the Maffra Beet Sugar Factory near the railway station.

- 4 Maffco - 13-17 Railway Place, Maffra
Originally the Maffra Co-operative (1918), known as Maffco. Maffra Co-operative joined Bairnsdale and Orbost in 1966 to become Gippsland Consolidated Milk Ltd. Now transformed to Maffco Brewery and Taphouse after recent renovations.

- 5 Maffra Railway Station - Railway Place, Maffra
The railway line to Briagolong closed in 1952 and the line from Traralgon to Maffra closed in 1987.

- 6 Maffra Library - 150 Johnson Street, Maffra
Previously the Mechanics Institute built in 1886, 1892 (Mechanics Institute Hall), 1922 War Hall), 1925 (Soldiers' Memorial Hall)

- 7 Macalister Hotel - 2 Johnson Street, Maffra
The iconic Macalister Hotel was rebuilt in part in 1922 following a fire which destroyed most of the building. However, today there are still areas in use which date back 150 years ago.

- 8 Metropolitan Hotel - 97 Johnson Street, Maffra
Previously known as the Metropolitan, built in 1889-1890. The first hotel operated in Maffra from as early as 1870 on the same site. Now it has been redeveloped for Woolworths.

- 9 Maffra Hospital - 48 Kent Street, Maffra
Built in 1946, the Maffra Hospital still provides services to the community to this day.

- 10 Catholic Church - Church Street, Maffra
A Foundation stone reads, " DOM This memorial stone of St Mary's Church was blessed by the Most Reverend Patrick Phelan D.D. Bishop of Sale May 4th 1924 - Rev P. Curran

- 11 Former Presbyterian Church - 7 Pearson Street, Maffra
A Foundation stone reads, " Presbyterian Church This stone was laid by Mrs A. Morison 30th March 1904". The Church is now home to the St Andrew's Parish.

- 12 Former Methodist Church - 9 Pearson Street, Maffra
A Foundation stone reads, " This stone was laid by The Rev Samuel Adamson President of the Conference 6th June 1912". The building is now the Maffra Senior Citizens Club".

- 13 St John's Anglican Church - 10-20 Church Street, Maffra
A Foundation stone reads, "St John's Church The Foundation stone of the first church was laid by Mrs H. Gordon Glassford of Mewborn Park on September 1st 1871.

- 14 Maffra Courthouse - 96 Johnson Street, Maffra
Originally built in 1888, the Maffra Courthouse was a Court of Petty Sessions/Magistrates Courts to 1983. It now houses the Pino Deriu Gem and Mineral Collection along with the Maffra Visitor Centre.

- 15 Former National Bank - 64 Johnson Street, Maffra
The National Bank of Australasia opened its first branch in Maffra in December 1872. The National Bank is a well proportioned and simply detailed classical style bank building, and typical of bank architecture in Victorian country towns of the 1870s.

- 16 Foster's Buildings - 69-71 Johnson Street, Maffra
The Foster's Building was built in 1908 for prominent local landowner Askin 'Alf' Foster. Described at the time as 'the most up-to-date building in Gippsland', the Foster Building originally had shops at each end with residences above

- 17 Memorial Hall - Foster Street, Maffra
A hall commemorates those who have served in the various conflicts. This building replaced the original World War One Soldiers Memorial Hall which is now used as the Maffra Library.

- 18 Maffra Showgrounds - Edward Street, Maffra
Agricultural Pastoral and Horticultural Society's showgrounds (1888) has undergone redevelopment and is now used by sporting groups and hosts the annual Maffra Show.

- 19 Duart Homestead - 20 McLean Street, Maffra
Built-in 1883 as the Maffra home of Hon Allan McLean, a local who became Premier of Victoria in 1899 and in 1901. The home was named after Duart Castle in Scotland, the seat of the Clan McLean.